Flynn Seeks Fight With Morris Puffs From the Fan's Hop Pipe

Jim Flynn, the Pueblo heavyweight, is now in Kansas City and will try to secure a bout there with Carl Morris, the Oklahoma heavyweight. Morris has been challenging Flynn for several weeks and a match will probably be arranged between them at one of the Kansas City clubs. Flynn believes that Kansas City is a lucky town for him, as he knocked out Al Kaufman there last year.

Jim Buckley is puffed at the criticism to the effect that Gumbo Smith is afraid of Sam Langford. Buckley declares that he made Smith a lucky town for him, as he knocked out Al Kaufman there last year.

Charlie Miller, the coast heavyweight who is booked to meet Al Palmer, has received an offer from Jimmy Coffey, the San Francisco promoter, to meet Arthur Belkey, the Canadian. The offer was condition that Miller must beat Palmer before he can fight Belkey. Miller considered the white champion on the coast.

Frank Moran, who recently knocked out Al Palmer, had a rapid rise to fame. One year ago, on the Fourth of July, Moran met Dave McFarland, a land negro, at the Juarez arena, and got the worst of eight rounds of fighting. Moran received the decision because Mills broke his hand in the east it is considered that one of Moran's greatest assets is his intelligence. A New York man has offered to wager $5,000 on Moran's chances against Jack Johnson.

Hans Wagner, hitting wonder of the Pirates, has been presented with a bat made of wood from Commodore Perry's historic battleship Niagara, which was recently raised from Lake Erie. The bat was a gift from a friend of Wagner's in Erie, Pa. Although assured that the bat is well seasoned, having been at the bottom of Lake Erie for a century, Wagner has not used it.

club league, has been drafted by the St. Louis Browns. Mize's name was not on the final draft submitted by the commission, but secretary Cook of the C. L. explained that it was an oversight, because St. Louis had drafted Mize and would take him.

Ad Wolgast, who is now taking a rest in Cadillac, has received attractive offers to go east and fight. Ad says he has not signed articles to meet Nelson because he wanted to know what about would draw before he took on the Dane. Wolgast does not believe that Nelson could make it interesting for him. The Boston A. C. wants Wolgast to meet Matty Baldwin.

Frankie Conley, of Kenosha, and Benny Chavez, considered to be a coming champion in the feather division, will probably be matched for a 10-round bout in the near future before the Colorado Athletic club at Denver.

Walter Carlisle of the Venice Tigers, is having the time of his life trying to stay in front of the run getters' procession of the Coast league. Carlisle has a total of 103 runs this season, while Jimmy Johnston of the Seals is second with 101. Manager of the Los Angeles club is third with 95. Jimmy Johnston still leads the base-stealing column with 101.

Bart Gordon, trainer of Al Higgins, challenged the winner of the Patrick-Tugler fight in Roswell, and believes that he can stop either of them in 10 rounds.

Frank Klaus has arrived in Chicago and will begin training for his fight with Eddie McGearty, booked for September 29, at Milwaukee. If Klaus succeeds in winning the popular verdict over McGearty, he will challenge Jack Dillon, McGearty has been working for several weeks and is intent on giving Klaus a lesson.

"Cyclone" Johnny Thompson, once a light-weight, and now a heavy, who has been making his way to the top of the pugilist ladder for 12 years, has announced his intention to retire from the ring. Johnny is now looking at a few Minnesota farms, and is contemplating purchasing a tract and settling down. Thompson knocked out Billy Papke, in Australia several years ago, and based his championship claims on that.

Packey McFarland is enroute to a training camp near Chicago where he will remain in seclusion until October 16. He is preparing for a busy winter, and has planned a campaign which promises to keep him hustling. He is now booked to meet Harlem Tommy Murphy, at New York, on October 12. McFarland says that after he defeats Murphy he will take on Willie Ritchie.

Sam Harris, manager of Kid Williams, will promote boxing shows at Baltimore this winter. For his first show, on September 28, at the American A. C. he has matched George Chaney and Tommy Houck for a 15-round bout. At the second, Kid Williams will meet Mickey Dunn, of New York, in a scheduled 15-round contest.

James White, of London, England, promoter has come forward with an offer of $17,000 purse for a fight between Bombardier Wells and Georges Carpentier, to be fought at the Olympic A. C. at London on December 6. White is the promoter who once offered a $10,000 purse for a fight between Jack Johnson and Wells.

George Tebeau, manager of the Kansas City Blues, has expressed himself as satisfied with the return of twirler "Ty" Morgan from Cincinnati, as ordered by the National commission. The price was $2,500 cash and two satisfactory players, or in lieu of players $2,500 for each player not delivered. Tebeau says that Morgan pitched nearly a full game before he went to the Reds, and only complained slightly that his arm was sore.

Zeke Lohman, and Otto Jost, pitchers procured from the Waco Texas league club, first by purchase, and the second on an option have been released by the Oakland Coast league club. Lohman has been with the Oaks about six weeks, and Jost about one month.

Harry Wolverton, manager of the Sacramento club, has recalled Charley Swain, from the Victoria team of the Northwestern league. Swain has been playing great ball both in the field and at bat, and Wolverton hopes that he will prove of sufficient value to strengthen the team. Pitcher Alberts, upon whom Sacramento exercised its option, will be allowed to remain with Victoria next season.

Y. M. C. A. GYM WILL OPEN MONDAY NIGHT

Athletic Classes Will Give Demonstration of Gymnasium Work—Business Men to Play Volley Ball.

Admirers of muscle will have a chance to see plenty of it in action at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium when a demonstration of the daily work of the Y. M. C. A. gymnastic classes, the muscle possessors and muscle getting aspirants will be given, to which admission will be free. This event is an annual opening demonstration of the gym which starts off the season in the class work for the fall and winter. The program will open with an entry march bringing in all the classes. Following this, the business men and regular classes will give a hygienic calisthenic drill. Apparatus work will be shown on the parallel bars by the regulars, on the horizontal bars by the older boys, and on the horse by the younger boys, and mat work by the preparatory boys. Next on the program is a wand drill by the "preps" and younger boys. G. King and H. Ervin will give exhibitions of hand to hand balancing, and the program will close with a dumbbell drill by the older boys and a game of volleyball played by the business men's class.

H. G. Haese, the new physical director, comes from Sydney, Australia, originally, although he has been on this hemisphere for some time. He has completed the course in the Springfield, Mass., Instructor's school, and has charge of the Y. M. C. A. physical work in Brandon, Manitoba, Canada, before coming here.

POWELL AND BRUCE FIGHT TO A DRAW

Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 26.—Frankie Powell, of El Paso, Tex., and Otis Bruce, of Denver, went 15 fast rounds to a draw here last night. The decision was popular.

Earl Puryear, of Denver, knocked out Kid Corbin, of Walsenburg, in the seventh round of a scheduled eight-round go. Corbin outwitted Puryear about 10 rounds.

Ritchie Says He Will Fight Welsh

Leach Cross and Joe Rivers May Be Matched at Vernon Arena on October 16—Clabby and Petroskey to Meet in Oakland.
By THOS. S. ANDREWS

WHAT is the real reason for Willie Ritchie calling off his match with Freddy Welsh, the British champion, at Vancouver, B. C., which had been set for September 20th? There must be something besides the talk of squabbling over a share in the concessions, which amounted to $5000. Willie Ritchie says: "I was tired of the tactics employed by Harry Pollock, manager of Welsh. I am ready to make a match with Welsh at any time and go through with it when Pollock and Welsh are ready to do business in the right way. The story that I quit out is too ridiculous to consider, and you can bet when the proper terms are arranged and, as I said before, Pollock wakes up and does business in a business manner, why I will be there all right."

While Ritchie will try and rake in the long green in the east, Freddie Welsh may go to Winnipeg for a match with Young Saylor of Indianapolis. Ray Bronson, the manager of Saylor, has received an offer for his young light-weight and will in all probability accept, providing Freddie can be secured. Welsh, of course, is anxious to get after Ritchie again and says he will keep on his trail until he does land a match, and no one will blame him for trying to put it through.

Jimmy Clabby will have a task on his hands October 2 when he tackles Sailor Petroskey, the California middle-weight, at Oakland, Calif. The weight is to be 155 at 5 p. m., which means that the native son will go into the ring about 10 to 12 pounds to the good. It is a big handicap for a boy like Clabby to give, but his cleverness will no doubt carry him through all right. If Jimmy had about 10 pounds more to his frame, he would be the champion without a doubt. At that he is as near the goal as any of the 155 pounders and must be figured on for the title.

Tom McCarey is trying to match Leach Cross and Joe Rivers for Oct. 16 at the Vernon arena and expects to go through with it without any interference.

through with it without any interference. There is no reason why they should not be permitted to go along as usual, for accidents are bound to happen in all kinds of sport. Many persons have been killed in automobile races, in baseball and football games, and in motorcycle races, this past season, but nothing has ever been said about stopping those sports. Cross and Rivers will make a strong card and the Mexican will have his chance to reverse the verdict against him some time ago at the hands of the New York dentist.

Battling Nelson and Ad Wolgast are at war again. The latter has never forgotten the time the Michigan bear-cat took away his title in a sensational bout at Port Richmond, Calif., after 48 rounds of rough fighting, and he wants to get another crack at his rival, no matter whether it is for a title or not. The latter has retired several times, but like Patti, he comes back again. The Hedgewich mayor says he will meet Wolgast, in Milwaukee any time, any place and for any purse, just to show that he is not down and out. A Milwaukee club is thinking of bringing them together. Why not have the winner meet Jimmy Britt?
